Researching Careers

The below can be found under Tab Self- Discovery

1. Personality Assessment

- Uses personality types to suggest careers and clusters that might be a good match for you.

2. Career Interest Profiler

- An online career interest assessment for students based on Holland's interest codes. When students complete the Career Interest Profiler, their results will display their top Holland Code matches.

3. Career Cluster Finder

- An online questionnaire that helps you discover career clusters that are most interesting to them. Once you complete the Career Cluster Finder, top matching career clusters are made available for review.

Naviance will provide career suggestions. To research careers further, visit the Occupational Outlook Handbook at <https://www.bls.gov/ooh/>. OOH will provide you information about what they do, work environment, how to become one, pay, job outlook, and similar occupations!

Finding Colleges

College Search: You will begin the search with over 13,000 colleges/universities.

SAT/ACT TEST DATES AND REGISTRATION

Register for these tests on the websites below, according to the deadlines below.

Program your College Board account with the names of the colleges to which you are applying before sitting for the test in order to take advantage of your 4 free scores reports

Scores require between 4 and 6 weeks to be available.

If you are applying to colleges in the meantime, list the date you sat for the test and leave the score blank. This will inform colleges that they should expect to receive additional scores.

YOU MUST ISSUE OFFICIAL SCORES TO EACH COLLEGE FROM THE TEST WEBSITE!

FOR SCORE COMPARISONS, Google the term Guide to the ACT/ SAT concordance table from the most recent year.

TEST SELECTION- If you are still undecided, continue taking the Free Combo Practice Test: SAT vs. ACT available from Kaplan Test Prep at www.kaptest.com.

TEST PREP- Khan Academy is an online free test prep resource that students may like to utilize.

TEST OPTIONAL- Some colleges are test optional. This could mean the college does not require students to submit scores, they utilize the scores for course placement but not admission decisions, etc. Visit www.fairtest.org to identify test optional schools and review the admission page of each college's website for additional information.
